The musical score is written in a key signature of one flat (B-flat major or D minor) and a 4/4 time signature. It consists of six systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part is primarily chordal, with some melodic lines in the bass. The lyrics are written below the vocal lines. The first system includes a treble clef and a key signature change to one flat. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system introduces a new line of lyrics. The fourth system continues the previous line. The fifth system introduces a new line of lyrics. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final chord and a key signature change back to one flat.
